A FOURTH OF JULY CELEBRATION IN KAISERSLAUTERN, GERMANY.

Held on the Weser, July 9, 1908.
To the Editor of the Alexandria Gazette: Dear Sir,—Enclosed you will find a short report of the Fourth of July celebration in Kaiserslautern. After visiting the Munich Exposition, I paid a short visit to Mr. Kraft, one of our former citizens, and as his guest attended the celebration. Yours etc.,
A. H. OEBLERT.

The celebration of the Fourth of July, arranged by the newly-organized club of German Americans of this city, consisting of 75 members, was a grand and remarkable success in every point of view. It was attended by over 3,000 people, and took place two miles outside of the city at a very cozy summer resort, located in the midst of a beautiful forest. At 3 o'clock in the afternoon, the members of the club, with their ladies and the invited guests, assembled at the clubhouse in the city which was decorated most tastefully with the American and German colors, heard an excellent band of 20 pieces play the "Star Spangled Banner," and then in teams drove out to the festive grounds where extensive arrangements had been made to amuse the children with all sorts of plays, and while the band was playing American airs the little ones amused themselves to their hearts' delight.

At 7 o'clock the members with their ladies assembled in the banquet hall to partake of a sumptuous supper in honor of the birthday of the great American republic, and the enthusiastic toast that was drunk to our country was followed by a hearty "hip hip, hurrah."

After supper the members again mingled with their guests in the woods, which were beautifully decorated and illuminated with hundreds of lamps in American and German colors.
At half past 8 o'clock the official proceedings were opened by Mr. Louis Kraft, formerly of this city, with a beautiful poetical prologue, eulogizing the country of his adoption and the friendship existing between the fatherland and the United States and his remarks were again and again enthusiastically applauded.

The next speaker was the acting mayor of the city, who explained in appropriate language the purpose and the meaning "of the day we celebrate." He cited the historic remarks of Patrick Henry in the assembly of Virginia, "Give me liberty or give me death," which created long and continued applause. His interesting sketch of the struggle for liberty by the thirteen colonies of the enormous development of the United States since then and the part the German element took in this development, was listened to with great attention and interest, as was also his reading of the "Declaration of Independence" in German, translated by Mr. Kraft.

He spoke of the historic friendship existing between the two nations, of their relationship and the mighty tie of civilization and culture between the two.

His closing remarks were followed by tremendous applause and a hearty "hip, hip, hurrah," after which the band played "Hail Columbia."

The second part of the programme consisted of recitations in English and German and of American and German songs beautifully rendered.

To the great delight of all present a young lady, costumed as "Columbia," in the American colors, recited the poem, "The Flag of the Free." A little girl of 6 years recited several American poems in a touching manner and her song, "What Mother Learned Me," was heartily applauded.

About 11 o'clock there was a fine pyrotechnic display in the woods, and the day's festivities closed with a grand ball under the direction of a French dancing master.

The celebration was thoroughly American in every respect, and one long to be remembered by those who had the good fortune to participate in it.
A. H. OEBLERT.

For the murder of the man to whom she was engaged to be married.

The personality of this young girl and premeditated murder of her fiancé, a civil engineer named Pfeiffer, attracted international attention. The social position of her family was very good, and she became engaged to Pfeiffer, a rich young professional man.

At her trial it was brought out, and she admitted with simplicity, that she visited her fiancé's house one evening, gave him cyanide of potassium in a drink she mixed for him, and then, to make sure of his death, shot him in the mouth with his own revolver.

She then dropped the weapon at the dead man's side, placed a forged will in her own favor on his desk, together with a note of good-bye, also forged, saying that she feared to lose her love through the revelation of a dishonorable liaison.

In addition to these papers the young girl also left behind a package of forged letters purporting to come from a woman in Italy, accusing Pfeiffer of desertion and threatening to tell Greta everything.

These forgeries were so skillfully done that they deceived the police and coroner. Greta fell under suspicion about a month after the crime through a love letter she wrote to an unworthy man, hinting at what she had done. The letter was found on this man's person when he was arrested for a misdemeanor.

Over Thirty-Five Years.

In 1872 there was a great deal of diarrhoea, dysentery and cholera infantum. It was at this time that Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy was first brought into use. It proved more successful than any other remedy or treatment, and has for thirty-five years maintained that record. From an all beginning its sale and use has extended to every part of the United States and to many foreign countries.
Nine druggists out of ten will recommend it when their opinion is asked, although they have other medicines that pay them a greater profit. It can always be depended upon, even in the most severe and dangerous cases. For sale by W. F.
Creighton & Co. and Richard Gibson.

Tomorrow, Friday, Is REMNANT DAY.

Progressive merchandising demands the absolute eviction of all goods, particularly wearables, in their respective seasons. There are quite a number of outer and undergarments for men, women, girls, boys, and little children—which we have marked at very low remnant prices for quick selling. Most of them can be worn until late fall.

There are also many odds and ends, short lengths, broken sizes, and assortments—all sort of remnants for personal and home uses—and they are priced very low.
